The Branscombe Waves

Dear Parents,

I was very proud last week to be approached by Exeter Diocese who asked our children to take part in the celebrations for the Installation of the new Bishop of Exeter. The service is taking place on Saturday 5th July. The procession will leave St Stephen's Church at 1.45pm and go to the Guildhall to collect the mayor and other officials before continuing on to the Cathedral. Parents will be able to process too!

As I explained in my letter earlier this week, you are free to leave after the procession or the children and their parents are able to join in with some children's activities that are being provided.

I appreciate that this event clashes with our school fair however it would be lovely if all three schools in the federation were represented. Please consider if your family are able to be part of this event and let me know on Monday.

Thank you for all your continued support.

God bless and have a lovely weekend.

Best wishes from Katie Gray and the staff at Branscombe School

Questions for the week

Class 1: Which children's medicines do you have in your house?

Class 2: Is this a body fact or body fiction? The length of your hand is three times the length of your thumb? Does anyone at home know any other body statements?

Menu change – 9th July Cornish Menu

The kitchen have informed us that on 9th July there will be a change in the menu. It will have a Cornish theme, with Cornish Pasty or Cheese and Onion Pasty being the main meal and vegetarian meal choices, followed by Cornish Fairing biscuits for pudding.

PTFA: Donations for Summer Fair

As you may know, the PTFA are requesting donations for the summer fair. They are asking for tombola prizes, bottles, filled jars or toys. Thank you to everyone who has already contributed.

Multi-skills club – Thursday 3rd July

Multi-skills club will NOT be running next week, Thursday 3rd July as Mr Ford will be on a first aid update course.
